MESSAGE FROM THE CHAIRPERSON
OF THE MIDLANDS SQUASH UNION

Welcome all Masters Players, new and old, to this the 28th Dave Short Inter Provincial Invitational Squash Tournament. It's so good to see old friends and welcome all new players to this wonderful tournament with such a long history.

Time Freight have once again come to the party and agreed to sponsor the tournament. They are fantastic supporters of Midlands Squash and we are very lucky to have them as partners, as they contribute in so many ways to our various tournaments, leagues and fund raisers.

I would like to thank our Sub Committee whom have worked hard to ensure that we have a successful weekend of squash especially Rennisha Larkin, our Secretary, for quietly working away getting in the entries and chasing up the payments.

The Short family is synonymous with Squash and had it not been for Dave's trip to the Mielie Land Tournament in Klerksdorp all those years ago we would not be here today. He has created such a fun tournament which with its formula of good squash, good friends and a good party has seen the continued support of players and its success over these 28 years.

As a wise man waxes lyrical every year "It does not matter whether we win or lose but how the game is played"

Yours in squash

Cathy Jackson

A Tribute to Father and Son – Dave and Mike Short

For the past 30 years at least, the name Short has been closely linked with Squash. There are a few towns or cities in South Africa – if any – where a family has been involved and rendered such fine service to the sport.

The Pietermaritzburg inter-Provincial Veterans tournament was started by Dave Short in 1987. After four of five years it was renamed the Dave Short Inter-Provincial Tournament (D.S.I.P.T) – a unanimous decision taken by the players involved in recognition of services rendered, sponsorship and passion for the sport.

Dave Short has earned his place in the history of squash and today D.S.I.P.T is a household word. But, following in his footsteps is his son, Mike, also a product of Michaelhouse and already at schoolboy level, a promising squash player. Soon, he too would offer invaluable service to squash – on and off the court at local and national level. His generous spirit, love of the game and sportsmanship have made a deep impression. Today his name is synonymous with Midlands Squash and he has left his mark as administrator and player.

Mike has been chairman of various squash committees including Collegians Squash Club, the D.S.I.P.T, Midlands Squash Union and SA Jesters. In 2013 he earned the S.A.S.R.A award of Administrator of the Year and was also awarded Midlands Squash Union honours. The new squash centre at Collegians Club has been named after him in recognition of his efforts in raising funds for the development of this centre.

Both Dave and Mike are South African Jesters – also known as “ladies and gentlemen of the court”, and had the honours of representing their country on overseas tours in past years; worthy representatives of South Africa.

On behalf of all players who have been involved in this fine tournament, the Dave Short Interprovincial, we salute them for leaving behind a family legacy, an indelible footprint in of world of squash.

Rob Van Heerden

"Get you home safe service"

What We DO:

This service is to get "over the alcoholic limit" people and cars safely to their destinations during the Dave Short Masters tournament.

We can drive your vehicle home from the function and one of our people will take the driver back to the function ensuring you and your vehicle are safe.

- Putting you in bed and tucking you in may require a tip* ...

Time available: 10 pm on all function nights!

We will arrive to drive people and cars home 'til close.

A tip of R100 would be good per trip (for either a bunch of players or a person's car and themselves.)
